Things I am praying for:

1 Kings 4:20-34

²⁰ There were many people in Judah and Israel. In fact, they were as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. They ate, drank and were happy. ²¹ Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates River to the land of the Philistines. He ruled as far as the border of Egypt. All those countries brought the gifts he required them to bring him. And Solomon ruled over those countries for his whole life.

²² Here are the supplies Solomon required every day.

five and a half tons of the finest flour

11 tons of meal

²³ ten oxen that had been fed by hand

20 oxen that had been fed on grasslands

100 sheep and goats

deer, antelopes and roebucks

the finest birds

²⁴ Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms that were west of the Euphrates River. He ruled from Tiphseh all the way to Gaza. And he had peace and rest on every side. ²⁵ While Solomon was king, Judah and Israel lived in safety. They were secure from Dan all the way to Beersheba. Everyone had their own vine and their own fig tree.

²⁶ Solomon had 4,000 spaces where he kept his chariot horses. He had a total of 12,000 horses.

²⁷ The local governors provided supplies for King Solomon. They provided them for all who ate at the king's table. Each governor provided supplies for one month every year. The governors made sure the king had everything he needed. ²⁸ They also brought barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses. Each of the governors brought the amounts required of them. They brought them to the proper places.

²⁹ God made Solomon very wise. His understanding couldn't even be measured. It was like the sand on the seashore. People can't measure that either. ³⁰ Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the people of the east. It was greater than all the wisdom of Egypt. ³¹ Solomon was wiser than anyone else. He was wiser than Ethan, the Ezrahite. He was wiser than Heman, Kalkol and Darda. They were the sons of Mahol. Solomon became famous in all the nations around him. ³² He spoke 3,000 proverbs. He wrote 1,005 songs. ³³ He spoke about plants. He knew everything about them, from the cedar trees in Lebanon to the hyssop plants that grow out of walls. He spoke about animals and birds. He also spoke about reptiles and fish. ³⁴ The kings of all the world's nations heard about how wise Solomon was. So they sent their people to listen to him.

BIBLE PROVERBS MATCH

Solomon was the wisest man who ever lived. While he was king, he wrote 3000 wise sayings known as proverbs. That's a lot of proverbs!

Match each proverb below with the correct Bible verse.

1. "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."
2. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction."
3. "An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels."
4. "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life."
5. "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is insight."
6. "Commit your work to the LORD, and your plans will be established."

God Answers Prayer

God was very pleased with King Solomon. One night God came to Solomon in a dream and said, "Ask for anything you want. I will give it to you."

Solomon asked for only one thing. Because God was so pleased with Solomon, He gave him other gifts as well. To find out what Solomon asked for, write the letters on the first sun ray in the correct order on the first line. Continue writing the letters on the other sun rays in the correct order to find out what else God gave to King Solomon.
